‘Boro Bike Fest - Saturday, May 15 - North Park

Did the winter blues get you down? Well, the Springboro Bicycle and Pedestrian Advisory Committee has been planning something that will help shake off that winter rust and get you moving (and biking)! On Saturday, May 15 from 10:00a.m.-2:00p.m., at North Park, the Advisory Committee will be hosting a Bike Fest that will feature many special events; including bike safety training by the Springboro Police, bike check station, children's helmet give-a-way and a bike parade for the little cyclists.

In addition to the many smaller events planned, the “main event” of the Bike Festival will be the Bike Swap. This is an event where you can bring your old bike and exchange it for someone else’s old bike. Maybe your kids have outgrown their bikes (or you have outgrown yours) - you can come to the bike swap and give your too small bike to someone and maybe take home a larger bike. For additional information, please visit the City website at www.ci.springboro.oh.us. Thank you to our sponsors - Huffy, 1919 Bike Shop, Dick’s Sporting Goods, Raleigh Bikes and Children’s Medical Center.

SPRINGBORO

Census 2010

At the time of publication of this City Notes, Etc., the City of Springboro's return rate for the 2010 U.S. Census was 77%! This rate is well above national averages, but we need to get 100%! There are still forms being mailed out across the nation, so if you have not received your form yet and you want to make sure your information is taken, you can call the Census Bureau at 1-866-872-6868 and they can mail you another form or can take your information over the phone.

Beginning in May, they will be sending hundreds of thousands of census takers to every neighborhood in the country to count each housing unit that has not returned a census form. So, if you do not want a visit by a census taker, please make sure you return your form or provide your information to the Census Bureau.
