PLAYHOUSE SOUTH PRESENTS SEUSSICAL THE MUSICAL!

The City of Springboro and the Park Board are pleased to announce that Playhouse South, a Community Theatre, is back for another exciting year of Theatre Under The Stars! Playhouse South is proud to present Seussical The Musical at the North Park Amphitheater, August 9th-11th and August 16th-18th. All performances will begin at 7:30p.m. Attendance to Seussical is free (although donations are certainly accepted to support the group)!

Seussical is a musical by Lynn Ahrens and Stephen Flaherty based on the books of Dr. Seuss that debuted on Broadway in 2000. The play's story is a rather complex collection of many of Seuss's most famous books. After a Broadway run, the production spawned two US national tours and a UK tour. It has become a favorite for school, community and regional theatres.

For more information, please visit the Playhouse South website at www.playhousesouth.org. If you attend, you may see a cat in a hat....how about that?

SPRINGBORO POLICE DEPARTMENT TO BEGIN TICKETING... KIDS?

Yes, you read correctly, starting in July and through the remainder of the Summer, the Springboro Police Department will begin “ticketing” kids! But it isn’t what you think.

While on patrol in the neighborhoods and elsewhere around town, Springboro Police Officers will be on the lookout for kids who are on their “good behavior”; whether that be riding their bicycles with helmets on, playing nicely with each other in one of our parks, helping others, or any other good behavior. And when the officers see any kids displaying good behavior, they will be pulling them over and “ticketing” them....with gift cards for ice cream! As part of this effort, the City has partnered with four local ice cream establishments - Dairy Queen, Coldstone Creamery, Graeters and K & W Drive In - “The K”.

The “tickets” will be $3 gift cards to one of the four businesses listed above. Hopefully, this is a good way for the kids to feel good about themselves as well as support some of our local businesses!
