City Designated "SolSmart Bronze" for Solar Energy Leadership

Springboro recently received a Bronze designation from the national SolSmart program for encouraging the growth of clean, affordable solar energy at the local level.

To achieve the designation, the City has posted an online checklist detailing the permitting process for residential rooftop solar, participated in staff training, and removed all fees associated with solar installation. These and other actions taken will make it faster, easier and more affordable for local residents and businesses to install solar in Springboro.

SolSmart is led by the Interstate Renewable Energy Council and the International City/County Management Association and funded by the U.S. Department of Energy Solar Energy Technologies Office. Over 500 cities, towns, counties and regional organizations have achieved SolSmart designation since the program launched in 2016.

Businesses Growing, Under Construction

Several buildings are in various stages of construction throughout the City. Caesar Creek Software is expanding its base with a $9 million investment in a second building at Springboro's Ascent, the business development on St. Rt. 741 near the Austin Road/I-75 interchange. The new building will be the fourth in this thriving area, where Mayfield Brain & Spine is preparing for its grand opening.

Along St. Rt. 73, River Valley Credit Union's new, state of the art building on W. Central Avenue opened in early June. Sheetz held a grand opening of the 6,100 sq. ft. building with fuel pumps and a drive-thru in May.

Featuring diverse flavors and wholesome ingredients, Hummus Mediterranean Food opened in June on N. Main Street.

Other new businesses recently opened or set to open soon include Belair's Salon, 40 Hiawatha Trail and Eclectic Gardens, 337 S. Main St.

City's Financial Report Earns Award

The City of Springboro has received the Government Finance Officers Association award for Outstanding Achievement in Popular Annual Financial Reporting for the fiscal year ending Dec. 31, 2022.

To be eligible for the PAFR Award, a government must also submit its annual comprehensive financial report to GFOA's Certificate of Achievement for Excellence in Financial Reports Program and receive the Certificate for the current fiscal year. Each eligible report is reviewed by judges who evaluate the report based on reader appeal and understandability, distribution methods, creativity and other elements. The report, prepared by the City of Springboro Finance Department, is available on the City's website.

Citizens Survey

Every three years, in partnership with Miami University Center for Public Management and Regional Affairs, the City conducts a "Citizen Attitudes and Public Opinion Survey" to gauge citizen attitude towards general City services. Miami University CPMRA randomly selected 1,500 Springboro households for the survey conducted in May. The short survey, which was completed on a voluntary basis, assessed a variety of issues and services that affect residents including street and road conditions, parks and recreational facilities and police protection. We'll share the findings on our website. The City has worked with Miami University since 2008 to conduct these surveys. To review past results, visit ci.springboro.oh.us.

A Place Where All Kids Can Play

The Dayton Children's Playground at North Park officially opened in May. The 30,000 sq. ft. all-accessible playground features two age-appropriate areas: one for youngsters under the age of five and the other for children 5 – 12 years of age. Elements include swings, slides, a zipline and climbing tower and musical play areas. Six pickleball courts are under construction to the south of the playground. Located at 195 Tamarack Trail, North Park is Springboro's busiest park and home to the City's Summer Concert Series and other special events.

Springboro City Council joined representatives from Dayton Children's, the Park Board and City staff for a ribbon-cutting ceremony.

Breakfast Club Coming to Wright Station

The new building under construction at Wright Station will include The Breakfast Club Café & Coffee Roastery. The restaurant will occupy half of the 8,000 sq. ft. building and include an outdoor patio with covering.

This is the sixth building to join Wright Station, a development partnership of Synergy and the City of Springboro. According to John Kopilchack, vice president of Synergy, a sit-down breakfast user had been targeted since the inception of Wright Station. He calls securing The Breakfast Club for the new site at the corner of Main Street and Central Avenue, a "homerun" as Synergy also wanted to attract a local operator for the development. The eatery, owned by Cameron Whipp, is well-established in Lebanon, and ready to grow to this new location. "We're bursting with excitement to serve the Springboro community with fresh, homemade breakfast and lunch, complemented by delicious drinks and freshly roasted coffee," says Whipp. He added the new location will be a welcoming spot for people to gather both indoors and outdoors to enjoy quality time with family, friends and exceptional food.

Springboro City Manager Chris Pozzuto says The Breakfast Club is a perfect fit to energize mornings and early afternoons and complements the other restaurants in the development. In addition, since the restaurant is only open through lunch, parking won't conflict with the other businesses there.

Wright Station is a mix of restaurants, retail, office, microbrewery and other entertainment spaces unique to the Springboro area and intentionally designed to be friendly to pedestrian, bicycle and vehicular traffic.

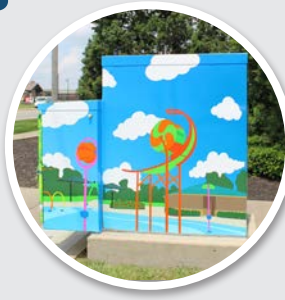

Bike Ride Through Springboro

Springboro's Bicycle & Pedestrian Advisory Committee (BPAC) in partnership with three local establishments are sponsoring 10-mile bike rides on City streets this summer. Three rides remain: Mr. Boro's Tavern on July 22, Warped Wing on Aug. 20 and Crooked Handle on Sept. 24. Rides start at 6:30 p.m. Visit www.bikingintheboro for details.

Wraps on Traffic Control Boxes Celebrate City Amenities

As part of the City's ongoing partnership with Warren County Career Center, we worked with six graphic design students and their teacher to design, create and install two vinyl wraps on traffic control boxes in Springboro. The wrap at St. Rts. 73 and 741—near the Springboro Performing Arts Center—celebrates the arts, while the wrap at Lytle Five Points and St. Rt. 741 showcases some of Springboro's favorite outdoor amenities like the splash pad at Kacie Jane Park, biking, the Veterans Memorial at Gardner Park and the new Dayton Children's Playground at North Park. The students installed the wraps in May. The first vinyl wrap project with WCCC was completed last year on W. Mill and S. Main streets in Historic Springboro. The wraps are bright, colorful and add a distinct look to each corner. More wrap projects are scheduled for the fall.

Leaf Collection Program to Start in October

The City's Leaf Collection program will start in mid-October. The collection schedule and map will be available in our next issue in addition to our website and social media. Leaf collection will continue through the end of the year.

Roadway and Infrastructure Projects

Streets in the 2024 Street Resurfacing Program include: Cambridge Drive, Clevenger Court, Clove Court, Concord Circle, Dinsley Place, Fairway Drive, Holly Court, Jackson Lane, Keevers Point, Martin Lane, McDaniels Lane, Merritt Pass, Null Boulevard, Wells Drive, Wilbur Lane and Wright Court. Work also includes concrete repairs to curbs, sidewalk and driveway aprons. Construction is anticipated to begin soon and completed in early fall.

2024 Water Main Improvements

New 8" water mains will be constructed on Park Lane and Parsley Court, Parkridge Court, Roundtree Court, Twin creek Court and Creekview Court to replace aging and deteriorating 6" water mains. These streets will be a part of the 2025 Street Resurfacing Program.

Be a Good Neighbor, Keep Fido on a Leash

Walking your dog is great exercise for you and your fur baby. We love seeing our furry friends and their owners enjoying our great parks and neighborhoods! Please remember that Springboro has a few rules with respect to our four-legged friends.

1. Do not allow your dog to roam freely. Dogs should be confined to your property or walked on a leash and kept under control.
2. Dogs may not run at large on any park property.
3. All pet owners are responsible for cleaning up after their pets.

Following these simple rules help keep our parks safe and enjoyable for everyone. Take advantage of Logan's Bark Park, our dog park located in Hazel Woods Park. It provides a fun place for dogs to run and play within a fenced area. Wherever you walk your dog, please practice neighborly courtesy by cleaning up any dog waste. Help keep Springboro clean and beautiful!

Ohio EPA Grant Helps with Water Refilling Stations

The City of Springboro received a $4,674 grant to install three water bottle refilling stations at Heatherwoode Golf Club. The grant, from the Ohio EPA, will help cover costs for the stations, and reduce the number of plastic water bottles on the golf course. The refilling stations were recently installed and are located on holes #7 and #13 and outside the clubhouse, near the Bunker.

The funds were part of a grant program to implement recycling, litter prevention, market development and scrap tire recycling programs for local governments, businesses and nonprofit organizations throughout southwest Ohio.

Those revisions include requiring communities and water utilities like the City of Springboro to identify lead pipes that connect drinking water service to homes and other buildings. In accordance with the federal mandate, the City of Springboro is required to prepare and maintain an inventory of service line materials for all properties located within the City.

If your home or business building was constructed after 1986, you do not need to complete the form as lead pipes were not permitted. North Park to Get New Restrooms

A new restroom building is on tap for our busiest park. Already home to the summer concert series, in addition to the recently opened Dayton Children's Playground and new pickleball courts under construction, a new restroom facility will be underway this fall at North Park. Designed by Springhouse Architects in Springboro, the plan calls for tripling the number of stalls for both men's and women's restrooms and adding a family restroom. The current building, onsite for more than 30 years, is set to be demolished Oct. 1 with construction to follow. Depending on weather, the expected opening date is June 1, 2025.

The new restroom building is made possible in part by $300,000 in state funding, thanks to the support of State Representative Scott Lipps and State Senator Steve Wilson.

In the meantime, in addition to the current restrooms, the City has an air-conditioned restroom trailer available for City events at North Park.

Cool off at Kacie Jane Splash Pad

The splash pad at Kacie Jane Park at Lytle-Five Points and Crosley roads is open 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. daily. In addition to water play, the park features two age-appropriate playgrounds, a musical interactive area, restrooms and shelter. The shelter at Kacie Jane Park is not available to reserve, however, you may reserve the shelters at Clearcreek, Community and North parks. All City parks are open dawn until dusk. Restrooms are open year-round in several parks. Visit ci.springboro.oh.us for more information.

Officers' Achievements Recognized

The City and its residents are fortunate to have police officers dedicated to protecting and serving our community. Congratulations and thank you to these officers, recently recognized for their service:

Officer Bill Clevenger is the Police Department's first licensed UAS (Unmanned Aircraft System) operator. The department recently acquired the UAS, which will be a helpful tool to locate missing children and adults, assist with traffic accident investigations by mapping the scene, and safely pursue suspects that flee from officers. The UAS has technology to be used day or night. Plans include training additional officers to use the UAS.

Officer Carl Hoskins received a Letter of Commendation for his conduct on the scene of an incident in which he provided mutual aid to another agency. Officers had been dispatched to a shooting and the suspect was still on scene with the firearm. During the investigation, Officer Hoskins demonstrated good tactics and sound decision-making, which led to a non-compliant suspect being taken into custody while avoiding any further injuries to anyone at the scene.

Officer Heath Martin received The Carnegie Medal for his heroic actions in saving a disabled man during a house fire last year. Despite smoke-filled fiery conditions, Officer Martin was able to get the man safely out of the house. Both were treated for non-life-threatening injuries. The Carnegie Medal was created by Andrew Carnegie in 1904 and is a national award, presented to those who risk death or serious physical injury to an extraordinary degree saving or attempting to save the lives of others.

Register with the City for Emergency Alerts

In addition to our website, Facebook, X and Instagram posts, the City utilizes the OnSolve CodeRED Emergency Alert System as a method to notify residents and businesses of emergency information. The City will use CodeRed messaging to send alerts via your landline and/or cell phone number with notices such as severe weather, boil water, missing persons and evacuations. When there is an emergency, the City determines the neighborhoods or areas affected and then a recorded message describing the emergency and directions to the public will be sent via telephones.

CodeRED will already reach the majority of residents who have a landline phone, however, the City encourages citizens who have cell service only, to register that contact number. To register and receive severe weather warnings, visit Springboro's CodeRED enrollment page at www.cityofspringboro.com/160/CodeRED-Emergency-Alert-System.

Individuals are encouraged to enter both a cell phone number and email address as well as select the types of weather warnings they want to receive.

Residents already enrolled in the free service should check that their contact information is current. You may also opt-out of the program from this page.

Springboro on Safest Cities List

SafeWise.com recently named Springboro as the 14th Safest City in Ohio based on crime rates as calculated from FBI data. Springboro consistently ranks among the top safest cities, thanks in large part to the outstanding efforts of our Springboro Police Department.

Home Safety Checklist

We're fortunate to live in a safe community. However, crimes of opportunity make it easy for thieves. Follow these safety tips from the Springboro Police Department:

- ✓ Keep your garage door closed. Police often investigate complaints about golf clubs, gardening tools and beer being stolen from the garage.
- ✓ Secure side doors and windows leading into your garage.
- ✓ Lock the door leading from your garage into your home.
- ✓ Park locked vehicles near the garage door and close to illumination.
- ✓ Take car keys with you—don't leave them in the ignition.
- ✓ Hide your valuables and lock your vehicle.
- ✓ Return bicycles, tools and other items to the garage. Don't leave them in the yard.
- ✓ Call the Springboro Police Department immediately if you witness a crime or something suspicious. Call 911 to report a crime in progress.
- ✓ If you SEE Something, SAY something!

Be Prepared for Emergency Situations

National Preparedness Month is recognized each September to promote family and community disaster planning. Prepare for an emergency event like a weather incident that could cause you to be self-reliant for three days without utilities and electricity, water service, access to a grocery store or local services and possibly without response from police, fire or rescue.

- Make a family emergency communication plan and include your pets.
- Identify an out-of-town emergency contact to coordinate information with family/friends.
- Keep an emergency kit wherever you spend time: home, car, work, etc.
- Download the FEMA app and set up local alerts.
- Practice your preparedness plans with a drill or exercise.
- Take time to learn lifesaving skills – such as CPR and First Aid, check your insurance policies and coverage for the hazards you may face, such as floods, earthquakes and tornadoes.
- Consider the costs associated with disasters and save for an emergency.
- Know how to take practical safety steps like shutting off water and gas.

Emergency preparedness information is available at ready.gov.

Police Department again recognized for Excellence in Policy and Training

For the fourth consecutive year, the Springboro Police Division was recognized with the Gold award by Lexipol Connect for consistently and effectively disseminating policies to officers, issuing timely policy updates as laws change and ensuring officers are trained on best practices and national standards for police policy.

Last year, the Police Department responded to 20,643 calls for service, an increase of more than 1,000 calls from 2022.

Lexipol is the nation's leading content, policy and training platform for public safety agencies. The Connect program tracks the Springboro Police Division's performance on five metrics proven to measure success in policy management.

Trick or Treat Night is October 31

Look for ghosts and goblins to come knocking at your door trick-or-treating 6 – 8 p.m., Thursday, Oct. 31. Most area communities have agreed to hold the event on Oct. 31 for the next several years.

New Officers Join PD

Springboro Police welcomed three new officers in June to the department. They are all in Field Training, learning the Springboro Police Department's policies and procedures along with familiarizing themselves with streets and neighborhoods.

Officer Ciarra Barrie brings OVI Task Force, ARIDE (Advanced Roadside Impaired Driving Enforcement) and Crisis Intervention (CIT) for mental health experience to the Police Department. A Springboro High School graduate, she earned a BS in Biology with a minor in Criminal Justice and Forensics from Wright State University.

Officer John Marconi comes to Springboro with more than 13 years' experience as a police officer with local agencies. He has served as a Field Training Officer and firearms instructor as well as a member of the Warren County Riot team.

Officer Matthew Wheeldon served four years in the US Marine Corps before becoming a police officer and has five years of law enforcement experience.

Get a Permit Before Starting Remodeling Work

Residents planning to remodel, build or add-on to any structure must first obtain a permit from the Springboro Building/Zoning Department. This includes the construction of decks, fences, patio covers, enclosures, accessory buildings, installation of irrigation systems and the like. Any remodeling to existing houses such as basements or an unfinished area in a home requires building plans to be filed with the City along with a building application. Pick up an application at the City Building or download at ci.springboro.oh.us.

Double fees are charged for work completed without a permit and some work may need to be removed and redone. It is very important to apply for the appropriate permit prior to work being started. Problems have developed when residents put their house on the market without proper inspection records on file with the Building Department. Contact the Building/Zoning Department, 937-748-9791, with questions.
