FAQs

Who must file a Springboro return?

All residents of Springboro, age 18 and older, must file an annual tax return to report their taxable income to the City. For a complete list of City-taxable income, consult the Tax Service s page at www.cityofspringboro.com.

Can I get help completing this form?

If you have questions regarding how to complete this form, call us at 937-748-9701.

What documentation should I submit with the return?

Include a copy of page 1 of your Federal Form 1040 (or pages 1 & 2 of Federal Form 1040-SR) and a copy of all W-2's you received from your employer(s).

How should I file the return?

Mail your return and supporting documents to: City of Springboro Income Tax Department, 320 W. Central Ave., Springboro, OH 45066. You may also put the documents in one of our physical dropboxes at the City building.

When is the return due?

April 30, 2026, unless you have filed for a six-month extension of time with the IRS or the City to complete your tax filing. If you applied for an extension, be sure to attach a copy of the form to your return.

What is the penalty for filing late?

Taxpayers who file after the due date (4/30/26 without an extension or 10/31/2026 with an extension) are subject to a $25 late-filing penalty. If you are filing late, you must add $25 to your remitted balance due or reduce any overpayment claimed by $25.

If I have a balance due, how can I pay?

- By check: Mail a check payable to the City of Springboro with your return, drop a check in a City drop box or bring your payment to the Income Tax Office, M-F, 8 AM–4:30 PM.
Please do not staple your check to your tax return.
- Pay by cash in the Springboro Tax Office, M-F, 8 AM–4:30 PM.
Please do not put cash in our dropbox.
- Pay at www.cityofspringboro.com using credit card or E-check. (Note: There is a convenience fee for this service.)
